Notes from Oakway.

Oakway, September 30.—Special: Rev. T. C. Ligon, of Townville, occupied the pulpit at the Presbyterian church here Sunday morning and preached an interesting sermon to a large congregation.

Quite a number of young people enjoyed themselves at a candy pull in at the home of J. W. Bearden last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mattison visited in Seneca last week.

Frank and Joe Foster, have gone to Walhalla to-day on business.

W. C. Myers has returned home, after a pleasant visit in Gaffney.

Mrs. Vester Bearden is on the sick list at this writing.

J. D. Isbell, of Walhalla, visited in our burg last week.

Miss Bertha Eubanks, one of Oakway's bright young ladies, has returned to Greenville to resume her studies in the Greenville Female College. Agricola.

Burned in Haystack.

Carmi, Ill., September 28.—Mrs. Laura Ellison, her children, Charles, aged five, and Ethel, aged three, and Leonard Sargeant, son of a neighbor, lost their lives in a hay shed, near Salem, yesterday. The children set the shed on fire with matches. Mrs. Ellison ran in to rescue them. The roof of the shed fell in and all were burned to death.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Judge of Probate for Oconee County, subject to the action of the Democratic party in the special election to be held November 5th, 1907, to fill the unexpired term of Dresden A. Smith, Sr., deceased. Respectfully, W. B. LOEHR, Editor The Oconee News.

The friends of JOHN B. S. DENDY hereby announce him as a candidate for election to the office of Judge of Probate for Oconee County.

NEWS FROM WESTMINSTER.

Death of Mrs. T. D. Long.—Young Matrons Entertain Their Husbands.

Westminster, October 1.—Special: On Friday, September 27, Mrs. Susan H. Long, wife of Hon. T. D. Long, was summoned to enter into the kingdom prepared for those who love and serve the Lord. She died in Greenville, where she went last June for treatment. Mrs. Long had been in delicate health for the past two years. The immediate cause of her death was hemorrhage of the bowels. She was a member of a distinguished family. Her father was the late Josiah Perry, who was a brother of the late Governor B. F. Perry, of Greenville, and N. J. F. Perry, who died on Conners Creek in 1884. Her grandfather, Benjamin Perry, was a Revolutionary soldier, and was in the battles in the New England States. Mrs. Long was born at the Perry old homestead, near Tugaloo river, sixty-seven years ago. She lived there until eight years of age, when she went to Greenville. She and Mr. Long were married in that city, the ceremony being performed by the late Rev. Plumer. Their married life, covering nearly half a century, was spent in this county, at her birth place. It was the sincere wish and hope of both Mr. and Mrs. Long that they would be spared to celebrate their golden wedding, which would have been on the 4th of next May. Two children were born unto this union, both dying in infancy. Mrs. Long connected herself with South Union Baptist church in 1862, and lived a consistent Christian life. Her charity knew no bounds. The following from Greenville accompanied the remains here Saturday on train No. 39: Mrs. Patsy Farr, Miss Emily Lupo, E. Percy Long and Will Johnson. Mrs. Long's body was laid to rest by the side of the grave of her mother in the family burying ground, after funeral services, conducted by her pastor, Rev. S. A. McDaniel. Mr. Long has been The Courier's correspondent at Tugaloo for the past ten of twelve years and his numerous friends extend condolence in the loss of his companion.

Friday evening, September 27, the Young Matrons entertained delightfully their husbands at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Carter. The occasion was an affair of the guests being received on the spacious porch. Vases of golden rod, placed on the numerous tables, produced a bright color effect, and quantities of ferns and palms were used. A pretty feature of the decorations was the use of Japanese lanterns over the many electric bulbs. Frappe was served by Miss Robbie Carter and Misses Carter and Osborne served refreshments and assisted in entertaining. Partners were secured by matching heads of women, which had been pasted on cards and then cut. At the end of ten minutes a signal was given and the women quietly withdrew. The men were presented with the following contest: Her name, color of her eyes, color of her hair, style of coiffure, weight, height, color of her dress, material of dress and trimming and style of dress? The answers were indeed original and unique. Mr. Brockman having the most accurate description, was presented with the prize, a pretty stick pin. The Young Matrons Thursday Club has been a delightful factor in the social life of Westminster and the fact that the members intend to have quarterly meetings to which their husbands are invited is learned with pleasure. The custom is a goodly one, assembling frequently, in a happy and informal way, the men and women of the town and promoting a generous good fellowship, which should characterize social life and make that of a town particularly ideal. Those enjoying this occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Carter, Dr. and Mrs. Will Carter, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bibb, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Brockman and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Pitts.

The members of the Young Matrons enjoyed a delightfully pleasant meeting with Mrs. Wilton Mason on Thursday afternoon at her handsome new home.

The Greenville News announces the following good news: "It looks very much like Westminster will get better schedules from the Southern Railway, something the people of that progressive town have been fighting for ever since the passenger train schedules on the main line were reversed about a year ago."

"The South Carolina Railroad Commission has taken the matter up, or rather Commissioner John H. Earle, acting for the commissioners, is now in correspondence with the officials of the company, and tomorrow he expects to go to Westminster and Seneca to look into the situation, as well as to take up some other matters in which relief is being asked."

"The people of Westminster are not satisfied with their present passenger service for the reason that the local trains come as far as Toccoa on one side and Seneca on the other and run to Atlanta and Charlotte. This leaves the Westminster territory to depend on the regular through trains and in view of the fact that more than half of them do not stop at Westminster, the people there feel that they had as well be living on some little spur line instead of the Southern's great main line."

"Now the people propose to remedy the situation by having trains No. 36, the northbound mail, and No.

35, the southbound, stop at Westminster on flag. This would give the people of Westminster an opportunity to take early morning trains for either Atlanta or Greenville, and make it possible for them to return the same day."

"Commissioner Earle has a letter from Assistant General Passenger Agent Allen, in which the letter says that he has taken the matter up with the operating department, and he hopes that a satisfactory arrangement will be made for the good people of the town of Westminster."

"Commissioner Sullivan will meet Commissioner Sullivan at Seneca, and it is probable that the two officials will look into a number of matters relating to freight and passenger traffic at Seneca and other towns in that part of the State."

The Woman's Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. J. R. Moore at the Baptist parsonage Monday afternoon, October 7. Program: Bible reading, a verse from each member on giving. Topic: "Enlistment Day." Mrs. O. K. Brazelton, Mrs. J. S. Carter, Mrs. Ira S. Pitts. Solo: "Shall I go Empty-handed?" by Mrs. W. J. Carter. As the literature for "Enlistment Day" has been delayed, this meeting is only a preparation for that day, which will have to be appointed. Cotton is bringing 11.35 this morning.

The two unions of the Beaverdam Association met here last Saturday and Sunday. Inclement weather interfered with the program for the first day to some extent, the attendance on that day being small. On Sunday a very large representation of delegates and visitors were here. The Superintendents' Conference was interesting and helpful, there being some able discussions. Rev. C. S. Blackburn, of Seneca, preached at 11 a. m., and Rev. D. I. Spearman, preached at 8 p. m. The place of the next meeting was not fully decided upon.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Clinkscales and son, of Atlanta, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Clinkscales and other relatives in Westminster.

Furman Simpson returned to Baltimore last week to begin his third year's study in the Baltimore Medical College. Clinton Marett, also of this place, left one day last week to begin the study of medicine in the medical college at Baltimore.

Derrell Pike returned to Texas last Thursday. He spent about two months this summer with his father, W. C. Pike.

Rev. B. Holder, of Pickens, spent a few days in Westminster last week. He came here on his return from the association at Mount Tabor, in Anderson county. He made an excellent talk in the mass meeting in the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Miss May Hutchison, of Opelika, Ala., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. T. Peden Anderson. She and her niece, Miss Preston Crowder, left on No. 39 for their homes yesterday. Elijah Timmerman, of Greenwood, is now filling the position of second hand in the carding room of the Cheswell Cotton Mill Company. Mr. Timmerman spent a while here three years ago, and made many friends, who welcome his return.

Eugene Norris has returned from Columbus, Miss. He expects to go to Atlanta in about two weeks to work with Mack Norris.

The landing for the passengers here has been changed to the side next to the depot.

Jas. R. Minley received his commission as carrier on R. F. D. No. 5 last Friday, and will begin work on October 16. Roy A. Stripling resigned some time ago to go to school at Clemson.

Mrs. J. C. Bearden and two children returned to Atlanta Friday, after spending the summer in Westminster with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McLin.

E. H. Dickson, of Newry, came up from Newry last Sunday to see his mother, Mrs. Sloan Dickson, who is seriously sick.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Poore visited at Royston, Lavonia and Bowman week before last.

We are having favorable weather this week for cotton picking. We received a card from Bud Stewart this morning. He was making preparations to leave Illinois for Little Rock, Ark.

William Bibb is erecting a handsome residence on Augusta street. It will contain nine rooms, and is going up rapidly.

J. O. Armstrong is engaged in moving Capt. W. E. Cheswell's residence from Main street to the street running parallel with Main.

Clinton Harris left yesterday for the Citadel Academy at Charleston. He begins his third year's course in that institution.

J. M. Benson and B. O. Whitten will leave this week for Jamestown. H. B. Nelms, of Hartwell, Ga., was here last Wednesday.

C. E. Gray, one of our marble men, left to-day for a business trip to Tate, Nelson, Marietta and other cities in Georgia.

Mrs. R. Callaway had her millinery opening last Thursday and Friday. Mrs. T. P. Moore has her opening to-day, to-morrow and Thursday.

Mrs. Loftis, residing on the Glenn place, near Fair Play, died Saturday while sitting in her chair.

THE NEWS FROM SENECA.

Marked Activity in Social Circle.—News Notes in General.

Seneca, October 1.—Special: On next Sunday afternoon there will be preaching at the Methodist church at 4 o'clock, at which Presiding Elder Beasley will be present.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the annual meeting will be held at the Baptist church, mention of which was made last week. There will be a full report of the work done during the past year, in connection with which there will be given a music program. After the business is disposed of an hour will be spent in social intercourse. The occasion promises to be one of great pleasure and profit to this wide-awake branch of the church.

Our milliners are arranging for their openings this week, which will be held the 3d, 4th, 5th.

Miss Morgan, who is well and popularly known here, is with S. K. & J. E. Dendy's millinery department. Miss C. Heine Wall, head milliner at W. D. Holland's, has been at her home in Atlanta for a few days on account of sickness. Her friends will be glad to know that she is well enough to return to her work here.

The opening meeting of the Once-a-Week Club was held with Mrs. J. H. Adams last Thursday. There was a large attendance, and indications point to a most successful club year. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Miss Annie Verner, of Walhalla, arrived in Seneca yesterday, and opens her vocal and elocution classes to-day. Seneca extends a hearty welcome to Miss Verner, assuring her of the encouragement which she deserves in this laudable and much-needed work here.

The friends and relatives of Mrs. Susan Long, wife of T. D. Long, of Tugaloo, will be pained to learn of her death which occurred in Greenville last Friday, the 27th. The body was taken to Westminster on train No. 39 on Saturday and interred at the family burying ground at the home on Tugaloo. Mrs. Long was a daughter of Josiah Perry, and niece of Governor B. F. Perry. She was orphaned in early life, and was brought up by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. C. Foster, of Greenville, and there was married to Thomas D. Long. The sympathies of many friends and relatives go out to the bereaved husband and relatives of this good woman, who "arise and call her blessed."

Hon. A. C. Latimer was in Seneca last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hopkins and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Folger are entertaining last arrivals at their homes on Fair Play street, in the persons of bouncing youngsters, on whose account they are being heartily congratulated.

H. J. Gignilliat, of Anderson, spent several days last week in Seneca. His friends, (and that means every man, woman and child in Seneca), were pleased to have him here. They are, however, grieved to learn of the serious and continued illness of his mother, Mrs. Griffin, but hope for early news of her improvement.

The funeral service of Mrs. A. W. Thompson were held from the residence, on Fair Play street, last Tuesday, and were largely attended. There were many friends and loved ones from a distance to "pay the last tribute," and the magnificent floral offerings bore mute testimony to the esteem and universal popularity of Mrs. Thompson. In her death Seneca sustains a sad and serious loss. Truly, she was regarded as part and parcel of the place, her people and her interests, and the gloom occasioned by her sudden demise will not readily be lifted.

The Willis Comedy Company appeared here on the evenings of the 27th and 28th with splendid houses. It is a patent fact, however, that these companies, in visiting small places like Seneca, do not put on their best work, consequently the shows do not reach the expectations of our people. It was so with the Peruch-Gypsene Company, which was billed here some months ago, and which was reported to be the best company ever brought here, and it was so with the Willis Comedy Co. This should not be so. The prices and the bills indicate a higher grade attraction, as in the recent show, with thirty members, when for a fact their full force was not here. This is not a criticism of our management, however, but of the companies who do not come up to the full measure of their advertisements.

B. P. Earle, Jr., is reported on the sick list this week.

Next Friday evening, at the home of Miss Mary Cherry, the quarterly meeting of the library association will be held. There will be a short business and music program, after which the meeting will be turned over to the hostess, who will offer an hour's entertainment to the members. The meeting promises to be one of the pleasantest yet held.

The cultivation of a few chrysanthemums in our garden brings to mind the once popular Oconee Floral Association, and with it the pleasant recollections and associations of the annual flower shows, which were held so successfully for several years here. Now the cultivation of this splendid "Queen of the Autumn" is almost a lost art, when for a fact just a few years ago they were grown here to such perfection. "Tis pity, 'tis pity, 'tis true, 'tis true, 'tis pity, and pity, 'tis true!" M. V. S.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

C. Bott, of Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors, and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by J. W. Bell, Walhalla; W. J. Lunney, Seneca.

Bounty Land Locals.

Bounty Land, September 30.—Special: Farmers are getting along very nicely with their cotton picking. The cotton crop in this section is not as good as it was thought to be.

The many friends of Miss Maude Ellison will be glad to learn that her symptoms have been favorable for the past week.

Miss Cora Hubbard, who has been clerking for the Seneca Mercantile Company, is at home with a case of jaundice.

Jim Wright made a flying trip to Greenwood to-day.

Mrs. Mary Fennell, who has been visiting relatives at Blacksburg, Pelzer and Anderson, is again with her daughter, Mrs. Elijah Gillison.

Miss Bertie Smith returned Friday from a delightful trip to Jamestown, Washington and other points.

Miss Ida McMahan, of Greenville, brother, Eugene McMahan, of Fair Play, visited their sister, Mrs. Thos. Hubbard, last week.

Jasper Doyle, accompanied by J. E. Dendy, of Seneca, left yesterday for Hartwell, Ga., where they will attend Hart County Court, which is now in session.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Corbin, of the Whitewater section, visited relatives in the vicinity Sunday night. Mr. Corbin returned home Monday. Mrs. Corbin will remain a few weeks.

Miss Leize Peritt, who has been teaching at Bear Pen, is at home on a two weeks' vacation.

Ernest Smith, of Clemson, made a hasty visit home Wednesday.

Mrs. W. H. Doyle, of near Walhalla, was a guest in the community last week.

J. B. Pickett will make a business trip to Greenville Wednesday, being on the committee appointed by the State Farmers' Union.

Mrs. Mills, the aged mother of William Mills, died at his home this morning, after a lingering illness. The bereaved relatives have our sincere sympathy. The remains will be interred to-day in the Hopewell cemetery.

The contract for making concrete blocks for D. A. Peritt's house has been filled, and the foundation for the house will be laid this week.

Preston Brown, a colored man, who lived on John Harper's place, while attempting to cross the Blue Ridge railroad near E. L. Stone's, was killed Saturday afternoon by a freight train. His skull was crushed and body badly bruised. The mule he was driving escaped uninjured. The wagon was torn into fragments.

Superintendent of Education C. L. Craig, of Walhalla, and B. E. Bagwell attended the Baptist association in Anderson county.

The community has recently sustained a loss in the death of William Turner, one of our most substantial colored citizens. Uncle Turner, as he was called, was about 75 years old and originally belonged to the late James McElroy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Pickett visited Mrs. Mary Johnson, of Walhalla, on Sunday.

J. E. Pickett has bought a tract of land below Seneca and contemplates moving his family this fall. Ed. is one of our most thrifty and energetic farmers, and their Bounty Land friends regret to give them up.

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of to-day; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief until I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold cure and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free.

Wants Absolute Divorce.

Atlanta, September 30.—It is definitely known now that Mrs. "Jack" Horner's visit to Atlanta was for the purpose of disposing of her property here and filing suit against her husband for absolute divorce on the ground of infidelity. Suit was filed by Arnold & Arnold, attorneys, and no alimony is asked. Mrs. Horner returned to Baltimore Saturday night. Her property in Atlanta is valued at about $50,000.
